NUNAVUT TERRITORIAL PARKS FIREARMS PERMIT CONDITIONS

The permit holder is authorized to possess and use a firearm in a Territorial Park under the terms and conditions more fully stated in this permit and may discharge the firearm only where authorized to do so for the emergency protection of person or property from dangerous wildlife by ss. 3.3 of the Territorial Park Regulations.

A person authorized by this permit to carry a firearm in a Nunavut Territorial Park shall carry their permit and a description of the registered firearm on his or her person at all times when in the designated Territorial Park.

Nunavut Territorial Parks Firearms Permits are non-transferable and are valid only for the persons, dates, and locations identified on the permit. From the Territorial Parks Act, Territorial Parks Regulations, amendment registered July 10, 2002 under registration number R-010-2002, Section 3, Firearms:

3.3 (4) A person who is granted a permit to possess and use a firearm in a Territorial park may discharge the firearm with the intent to frighten or drive away wildlife only where it is necessary:

(a) to preserve his or her life;

(b) to preserve the life of another person;

(c) to protect his or her property; or

(d) to protect another person's property.

(5) A person who is granted a permit to possess and use a firearm in a Territorial park may discharge the firearm with the intent to kill wildlife only where it is necessary:

(a) to preserve his or her life;

(b) to preserve the life of another person

3.4 A person may carry and use without a permit bear deterrent devices such as cracker shells that are designed to frighten but not injure wildlife, unless the devices are intended to be discharged from a firearm. (note: bear deterrent launchers require a Firearms Permit)
